Dear Rick,

The new year has quickly come upon us and many exciting things are in store from Predator Games. We hope everyone had a terrific holiday season with your friends and family.

It is cold out there for many of us, but that shouldn't stop you from playing paintball laser tag! Take advantage of the time off from school or work and bring some friends to a nearby field (which you can find at www.predatorgames.net).

Read on to learn about the latest from Predator Games, and may 2011 be your best year yet!

A Fresh New Social Media Experience

Predator Games will be rolling out an entirely new Social Media experience in 2011. Look for changes in the layout and design of the pages and also new interactive content. The sites will integrate more closely with the Predator websites to give visitors easier access to information. Visitors will be able to distinguish the Predator brand easily as they surf the web.

The community has been growing rapidly in the past few months. Take a moment to check out any of our social sites and you'll find many other people using Predator Games paintball laser tag. You can see posted pictures, check out what other users are doing, and even enter exclusive contests.

Get More: The New Predator Games Podcast!

Predator Games is starting podcast this year. Each 5-10 minute clip will be available on iTunes, Youtube, and our websites. The clips will give viewers a look behind scenes and feature rich content covering many topics. A new podcast will be released whenever new exciting content is available.

The podcast will launch in the spring and begin with a look into the manufacturing facility where Predator paintball laser tag units are made and serviced. You'll get a chance to see the inner workings of the company and an idea of how things work.

If you have an idea for a podcast topic, let us know! Our goal is to provide content that is interesting and helpful to our users!

Don't Forget! Now's The Time For Service!

Now is the time to send in your Predator units for inspection or tuning! Sending them in now will ensure that you have them back in time for the upcoming busy season. If you have a unit that doesn't seem right, feel free to send it back. We will get it back to new status and return it the same day*. We can also update your units and troubleshoot problems you may have.

Be sure to include a note describing your issue and a return address we can use to send it back.

Upcoming Trade Shows

Predator Games will be at a few notable trade shows within the next few months that you might want to check out. The first is the True Value Rental Show, a show in Orlando, FL hosted by True Value hardware stores and focusing on their rental department.

This big show is being held February 1-2 and features tons of equipment, tools, and entertainment rental equipment. Rental centers can obtain rental crates from Tippmann USA for another option. Mom's and other renters can pick up a box of 6 guns and bring them to a birthday party or any other event for an incredibly easy and fun day. This is NOT a public event.

The 2nd show is from February 27 - March 2 in Las Vegas, NV. The American Rental Association Rental Show is the same type of show as the True Value one with a wider audience.

Rental equipment manufacturers will be there by the hundreds, including Predator Games and Tippmann. For more info, head to www.therentalshow.com.

If your business operates with rental equipment or would like to check out the latest in entertainment rentals, check out one or both of these shows.

Did You Know?

Something big is coming from the makers of Predator Games. Something entirely new. Keep your eyes peeled for a world-wide unveiling on February 2nd.

Sincerely,

Predator Games
